

Marine Integrated Management Systems

Course aim and objectives:

Shipping companies implement safety management systems integrated with elements from various maritime standards for conforming to the rapidly changing maritime regulations and demanding industry requirements. This course provides the required knowledge for developing, harmonizing, implementing and maintaining a corporate structured marine integrated management system enhancing continual improvement and business growth

Course main elements:

- Marine Integrated Management Systems essentials
- Risk control dynamics
- Reviewing processes, procedures and applicable standards
- Developing, harmonizing, implementing and maintaining marine integrated management systems
- Certification process of marine integrated management systems
- Practical exercises, case studies and final examination

Course participation:

The course is open to shipping company corporate managers, superintendents, office employees and ship-board members with responsibilities for developing, implementing and maintaining a marine integrated management system.

Course duration: 3 days

This training program is currently provided in 18-hours with real time instruction through a dedicated e-platform in 3 six-hour pre-scheduled interactive web-based learning sessions.