

ISO 45001:2018

Occupational Health & Safety Management Systems

Course aim and objectives:

This course provides participants with a detailed analysis of the elements of the standard which may complement the ISM Code - safety management system by further promoting safety to the marine workplace environment. Occupational health and safety management systems provide a tool for reduction of risk related issues and safer ship operations as well as opportunities for continual improvement.

Course main elements:

- ISO 45001:2018 terms and scope
- Occupational health and safety management system requirements
- Integration with ISM Code – safety management systems
- Risks and opportunities for improvement
- Operational planning, knowledge of the organization, performance evaluation
- Management review and continual improvement
- Practical exercises and final examination

Course participation:

The course is open to shipping company office personnel and ship-board members who need to understand and implement an occupational health and safety management system requirements.

Course duration: 1 day

This training program is currently provided in 6-hours with real time instruction through a dedicated e-platform in 2 three-hour pre-scheduled interactive web-based learning sessions.